LOOSE'S AWFUL ACTS.

Opens Fire Upon His Own Flesh and Blood.

TAKES LIFE OF DAUGHTER.

Turning Weapon Upon Frederick, a Son, a Lutheran Clergyman, the Father Probably Fatally Wounds Him, Bullet Penetrating Abdomen.

New York, Nov. 24.—Returning to his home in the Upper East Side after an all-night absence, Carl Loose, a baker, fifty-seven years old, opened fire with a revolver upon members of his family, who were at breakfast, instantly killing his seventeen-year-old daughter, Meta, and probably fatally wounding his twenty-four-year-old son, Frederick. He was disarmed by John, his nineteen-year-old son.

Loose was arrested, charged with murder. He stolidly refused to give any reason for his terrible conduct. Frederick, who is a Lutheran minister, has a bullet in his abdomen. He recently received a call from a church at Yayo, S. D.

The pistol shots attracted an immense gathering in front of the house and the excitement for some time was intense.

TEXANS AT WASHINGTON.

Do Not Expect Reduction of the Tariff on Sugar, Wool and Rice.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Representatives Stephens of Vernon, Burgess of Gonzales, Randall of Sherman and Gillespie of Fort Worth, form the vanguard of the Texas delegation of the next session of congress. They are here attending tariff hearings. They are of the opinion that no effort will be made to reduce the tariff on rice, sugar, wool and other Texas products. Senator Bailey and Representative Burgess are participating in the sessions of the monetary conference.

UNTIL OBLIGATED.

Far-Reaching Opinion Is Given by Walthall.

Austin, Nov. 24.—An opinion of unusual importance has just been rendered by Assistant Attorney General Walthall. He holds that a member of the legislature cannot, by tendering his resignation to the governor, and having the same accepted, relieve himself of the duties and responsibilities of the office, but that he must continue to discharge said duties until his successor has not only been elected, but also has taken the oath of office.

The matter was brought about over the case of Hon. T. D. Cobb of Bexar county, a member of the lower house of the Thirtieth legislature, who resigned rather than to have to comply with the anti-pass law, being a railway attorney. This ruling affects every member of the legislature who resigned, as they could not be legislators and hold positions which entitled them to ride on free passes.

The governor and adjutant general received invitations from George J. Head of Brownsville to accompany Colonel W. J. Bryan on a duck hunt on the King ranch on Dec. 1. General Newton has declined on account of official business and advised Mr. Head that the governor is at Mineral Wells.

Commissioner of Agriculture Kone will ask the next legislature for $44,000 for two years to compile and disseminate agricultural information and conducting farmers' institutes. This is carrying out the campaign of education for farmers.

"What's the Use?"

Gallipolis, O., Nov. 24.—Dr. O. S. Mills, aged forty-eight years, house physician at the Columbus insane asylum, killed himself here. He left a note that reads: "What's the use?"

Death Due to Chloroform.

Taylor, Tex., Nov. 24.—Jake Breiger, a prominent citizen, died from the effects of drinking chloroform. He leaves a widow and child.

PRANK OF TEXAN.

Causes Intense Excitement In St. Charles Hotel, New Orleans.

New Orleans, Nov. 24.—Armed with a magazine pistol and thirty-five rounds of steel cartridges, John L. Hagler, a big husky Texan, believed to be demented, entered the St. Charles hotel and caused the guests an unpleasant thirty minutes. With pistol in hand he went from room to room, bit an inquisitive chambermaid on her neck and fired two shots at G. S. Williams, the house detective.

The little melodrama was enacted on the seventh floor. The Texan was finally landed in a padded cell in the house of detention after he had been bound hand and foot by two policemen and three detectives. No blood was spilled, except the little stream which poured from the nostrils of the prisoner after he collided with Detective Williams' billy.

Rate Hearing Adjourned.

San Antonio, Nov. 24.—The interstate commerce commission adjourned the rate hearing at noon Tuesday. It gave no intimation where it would meet next, Judge Lane stating he would have to consult the commission. It is believed it will be held at Washington.

H. G. Askew, statistician for the Texas railroads, on the stand Tuesday, said the cause for the increase of rates was due to excessive personal injuries claims of this state, high wages for labor and high cost of coal. Judge Lane said he does not understand the Texas intangible tax law and no one present could give him a satisfactory explanation. The commissioner said this tax is of great importance and he will investigate it.

Will Reside in Philippines.

Belton, Tex., Nov. 24.—Captain W. T. Davidson of the United States army and Miss Mary Hudson were united in marriage at this city. The captain and his bride left for a wedding tour of Japan and China. They will then journey to the Philippines, where the groom is stationed.

Cowan Will Place Claims.

Fort Worth, Nov. 24.—Judge S. H. Cowan will leave here next week for Washington, where he will place claims against railroads before the interstate commerce commission for $500,000 on behalf of the Texas cattle raisers' association. This is the amount agreed upon for overcharges in accordance with the recent St. Louis decision.

Looking Into Situation.

Fort Worth, Nov. 24.—Messrs. Skipworth and Cuesy, representing the Schwarzschild & Sulzberger, Chicago packers, are here and investigating the situation with a view of establishing a large plant.

Seriously Hurt In Bout.

Philadelphia, Nov. 24.—Fred Bradley of Boston, a heavyweight pugilist, was seriously injured in a savage bout at the West End Athletic club with Al Kubiak, known as the "Michigan Giant." He is at the Presbyterian hospital. He is suffering from concussion of the brain and possible fracture of the skull. All principals in the affair were arraigned before a magistrate. Kubaik was at once committed to the county prison without bail to await the outcome of Bradley's injuries and O'Brien, referee of the bout; Kelly, manager of Kubiak; Daly, manager of Bradley, and O'Hara, Kubiak's second, held in $800 bail each, which was furnished by O'Brien.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

Scored a Nice Success With the District Meeting Held Last Night.

The success predicted for the district meeting of the Knights of Pythias when the convention was first announced some weeks ago was fully realized when the train from the south came in, bringing a large number of the brethren from Navasota, together with Grand Chancellor C. H. Powell of San Angelo, Grand Keeper of Records and Seal, Henry Miller of Weatherford and Past Supreme Representative C. T. (Uncle Joe) Roff of Brenham, No. 10. Prominent among the members of Navasota No. 17, whom The Eagle man met, were: Mr. Ira Gooch, C. B. Cuthrell, A. V. Cuthrell, Lord John Houghton Dalton, C. S. Cohen, R. A. Horlock, Ward Templeman, Joe Bednar, Dr. L. J. Goree, Charles Camp, and J. M. Sloan.

The late afternoon trains brought a large number of knights from Hearne, and Franklin. Among the latter is the Third Rank team which will exemplify the secret work tonight.

Program of the evening was as follows:

Afternoon Session—Address of welcome by Mayor J. T. Maloney, past chancellor.

Response by Brother J. Felton Lane, D. G. C., Hearne, No. 18.

Reports from all lodges in the Sixteenth district.

Exemplification of the secret work and addresses by Grand Lodge officers.

Strictly informal; good fellowship to prevail; make yourself at home.

Old fashioned experience meeting, all participating.

Adjourned to 7:30 o'clock.

Night Session—Addresses, all participating.

Exemplification of secret work and addresses by the grand lodge officers.

Address by Bro. Marrero Herring, Groesbeck Lodge, No. 79.

Good of the order, all participating.

Opening of the subordinate lodge, J. M. Hare, C. C. Brazos Lodge No. 64, presiding.

Exemplification of the secret work, amplified form, Franklin Lodge, No. 275.

Before concluding the afternoon session of the district K. of P. meeting, the past chancellor degree was conferred upon the following: Brazos 64 W. H. Lawrence, W. S. Wilson, Jr., J. T. Maloney, J. W. Williams, Jr., R. J. Potts, F. A. Capps.

Franklin, 273, R. B. Grant, M. A. Gilland, J. C. Mitchell, O. E. Baxter.

Navasota No. 17: J. T. Evans, C. E. Hardy, C. M. Camp.

The Pythian flag was unfurled to the Bryan breeze early Tuesday morning. From the roof of the three story building in which is located the castle hall the colors were flown, the red, white and yellow contrasting in sharp distinction with the black field which they bordered.

A welcome sign extended across the sidewalk at the foot of the stair leading to the K. of P. rooms on the second and third floors of the building, and in this sign the colors of the order were displayed.

No decorations were attempted inside the hall, but behind the chancellor's chair two American flags, with staffs crossed, fell in graceful and patriotic folds. From the gilded eagles perched on the tip of the flag-staffs, heavy gold cords were looped across, making an effective picture.

That the details of the meeting had been placed with competent committees is best evidenced by the smoothness and precision with which the program was carried out, both before and during the meeting. Committees met the trains as they arrived and it seemed to be a real pleasure to the members of the local lodge to care for their guests, and all were made to feel at home. The Exchange hotel, of which the proprietor, Mayor Maloney, is a past chancellor, was headquarters for the visitors, and especial care was given to their comfort.

A revised list of those in attendance follows: Grand Chancellor Powell, San Antonio; Grand Keeper of Records and Seal Henry Miller of Weatherford; Grand Outer Guard Chas. F. Welland of Dallas; Alternate Supreme Representative C. T. Roff of Brenham. The grand officers came direct from Caldwell, where they held a district meeting with Caldwell Monday night. C. B. Cuthrell of Navasota; C. J. Kirk of Navasota; Ira Gooch, Navasota; Joe F. Bedner, Navasota; T. W. Parker Waelder; J. Felton Lane, Hearne; O. C. Bonderant, Franklin; W. C. Crane, Franklin; H. H. Connor, Franklin; J. F. Van Pelt, Franklin; R. A. Horlock, Navasota; Ward Templeman, Navasota; Emil Meyer, Groesbeck; Marrero Herring, Groesbeck; Will C. Perry, Franklin; Otho Baxter, Franklin; T. M. Sloan, Navasota; L. J. Goree, Navasota; R. W. Horlock, Navasota; H. H. Prewett, Franklin; D. L. Dotson, Franklin; R. B. Grant, Franklin; H. J. West, Franklin; W. P. Beverly, Hearne; W. B. Moris, Franklin; R. J. Lloyd, C. B. Carter, Tom Hillier, Jr., Ben C. Love, C. W. Kinard, Dave Love, Franklin; A. V. Cuthrell, Navasota; M. A. Gilland, Franklin; J. H. Dalton, Navasota; R. A. Harrison, Brenham.

THE COTTON MARKET.

The market fluctuated within narrow bounds Tuesday, but the tendency was toward lower prices.

Liverpool opened 1/2 point better than Monday's close but went off, closing 1 1/2 points down.

Spot sales were heavy, and 10,000 bales were sold.

The American markets opened practically unchanged, but closed considerably lower, New Orleans leading in the decline which amounted to 8 to 12 points, while New York declined 5. The decline is supposed to have been caused by profit taking by the longs rather than to any important crop news.

The spot market here is unchanged, notwithstanding the revision in the contract markets noted.

Tuesday's prices:

Low middling, 7 1/4c

Strict low middling, 8 1/4c

Middling, 8 5/8c

Strict middling, 8 13/16c

Good middling, 9c

Spot sales Tuesday, 100 bales.

Liverpool is due to open 3 points down this morning.

"Going! Going!! Gone!!!"

New York, Nov. 24.—"Going! going!! gone!!!" Hardly had the last word left his mouth when Louis Levy, a picture auctioneer of unredempted pawned goods in Park Row, dropped dead on his block. He had just accepted a bid of $63 for a split second watch, and, curiously enough, sixty-three was his own age. Levy was married and was formerly a prosperous merchant. Physicians say that heart disease was the cause of his sudden death.

Y. M. C. A. REORGANIZED.

Large Attendance Upon First Meeting—President, Vice-President and Secretary Elected.
(From the Maverick.)

During the past week, Prof. J. H. Allen announced that on Sunday evening, Nov. 8, he would meet all boys who were interested in the re-organization of the Y. M. C. A. This feature of the school life has been a very important one in Allen Academy for the past several sessions. About sixty students assembled in the chapel at the appointed hour. The large attendance was encouraging to members, officers and teachers alike. With this manifestation of interest, we hope that the former records of this department in the Academy will be equalled or even excelled.

The meeting opened with some good singing, in which the boys joined heartily almost to a man. A good part of this is due to Prof. E. L. Evans, who has proved valuable in directing the singing. Archibald Perkins presided at the organ.

Professor John Allen, nominated as president of the organization, John Newton. Mr. Newton is a resident of Bryan, and has already shown himself efficient in conducting young people's Christian work, especially in the local B. Y. P. U. As vice-president and chairman of the committee on entertainment, George Peeler was chosen. The vice president has been an A. A. student for several sessions and is highly esteemed by all who know him. Scott Hill was elected secretary. Later on additional officers will be appointed. Only enough were elected at this meeting to put the association in motion.

Using the twenty-third Psalm as a text, Prof. John Allen made a short, impressive talk to the students. This was followed by a few equally interesting words from Prof. South.

From time to time the Y. M. C. A. hopes to enroll a large part of the remaining student body. Come in and lend us your help. If we can assist you, use us to that end.

A GREAT LECTURE.

Frederick Warde on Shakespeare's Julius Caesar.
(From the Maverick.)

On Friday evening Oct. 9, the people of Bryan had the privilege of hearing a very instructive lecture on the "Tragedy of Julius Caesar," by the noted Shakespearean interpreter and former actor, Frederick Warde.

From the moment Mr. Warde appeared on the stage, until he bowed himself off, he commanded such attention as is rarely paid to any speaker. Those assembled, anticipating a rare treat, waited in almost breathless expectancy for his first words. These were to the people of Bryan, recalling his previous visit and assuring them that he would never forget their hospitality.

Mr. Warde experienced no difficulty in repeating Shakespeare's exact words throughout almost the entire play. Some few scenes were omitted, because of their minor bearing on the thread of the story, but nearly every incident in the play was discussed during the two and a half hours that he spoke. It was quite astonishing how he so completely covered the whole tragedy in so short a time.

Very fittingly did Mr. Warde point out the contrast between Christ and Brutus, when each was tempted. Christ knew the price of sin, and acted accordingly; but Brutus permitted the evil seed to be sown in his heart. Soon it was firmly rooted and growing rapidly. Then it began to bring forth its fruit, first in the assassination of Caesar, closely followed by the suicide of Brutus himself.

The Senior class is unanimously grateful that the privilege of this lecture was extended to them.

Mobile, Ala., Nov. 24.—Mobile kept the latch string on the outside today in honor of the scores of veterans and other visitors arriving in the city to attend the eighth annual reunion of the Alabama Division of the United Confederate Veterans. Headquarters for the reunion were opened last night at the New Battle House. At 9 o'clock this morning the gathering was formally opened in the Lyric theater, with Major General George P. PROPOSED NEW STATE IN WEST FOOTBALL TEAM ENTERTAINED. TEXAS.

Matter of Deep Concern to Every Proud Texan.
(From the Maverick.)

There is a movement among the inhabitants west of the Pecos river to segregate themselves from the remainder of the State. They claim that some laws, as those of mining and quarantine, beneficial to Texas as a whole, are hurtful to them, as they are in a higher altitude and surrounded by different conditions.

We are desirous that our proud State shall always be as imposing in form, as great in extent, both of area and influence and as rich in patriotism and state pride as she now is. Texas legislation is surely capable of properly providing for this wing of our great edifice, without lopping it off. It can bring these seven deserving and ambitious counties well to the front ranks of opportunity and prosperity and yet keep them an integral part of the splendid whole.

This portion of Texas, west of the Pecos river, is from 250 to 550 miles from Austin, situated in a rich mineral belt, with an altitude ranging from 3,500 to 8,500 feet. Though much of the land is already under irrigation, the acreage will be largely increased when the federal government completes the great Eagle dam on the Rio Grande.

There is a great outlook for this part of Texas, with its rich mines and fertile river valleys. Let the State make it to the advantage of these people to remain Texans.

S. S. H.

Texas University to Celebrate.

Austin, Texas, Nov. 24.—Alumni and other friends of the University of Texas are gathering in large number to take part in the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the university. The celebration will extend over two days, beginning tomorrow, and from all signs will prove to be a most notable event. In addition to the scores of graduates and former students the participants in the celebration will include representatives of practically all the educational institutions in Texas and a number in other states.

(From the Maverick.)

On Friday evening, Oct. 30, a most delightful and elegant reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Haswell at their lovely home, in honor of the Academy football team. An equal number of Bryan's fairest young ladies graced the occasion with their presence and a brilliant social affair was the result.

To say that Mr. and Mrs. Haswell are charming hosts, and know how to make young people have a good time, would be a tame way of putting it. To understand fully, you would have to be one of the pretty girls or the fortunate boys favored and honored on this occasion.

After introductions and a short time spent in conversation, the hostess brought forth the Blarney stone, and set it on a table for the boys to kiss. After each agitated subject in turn had been blindfolded, he was started towards the table. As they were not allowed to use their hands, most were very unsuccessful, while a few hit the mark; but as to who was the most successful in saying nice things and making the desired impression, that will have to be referred to the young ladies present.

Several games were as much enjoyed as the first, but one deserves especial mention. This was a guessing contest in which the answer to all the questions were football terms—the best of the kind we have ever seen. The prizes, two handsome pictures, were won by Carroll Ward and Miss Hudson.

Delicious refreshments in courses were served, and several beautiful musical numbers, furnished by Mrs. Lawrence and Miss Irma Harris, added much to the pleasures of the evening.

At a late hour the most exciting game of all was introduced. A hat containing sixteen slips of paper, each with a young lady's name upon it was passed around. Each boy drew the lady he was to have the honor of escorting home. Judging from the results, fortune was never more kind, never made more hits, nor fewer misses.

In the years to come the achievements of the A. A. football team on the gridiron may fade from our memories, but we can never forget the jolly good time we had with Mr. and Mrs. Haswell.

If you can think of nothing else to be thankful for remember what a blessing it is to live in Texas, especially in Brazos county and most of all in Bryan.

The Shah thinks the Persians wouldn't know how to use a constitution if they had it. They will never be satisfied, however, until they get a chance to try.

The good banks say they should not be made to stand for the losses of the bad banks. Very true, but if the proper regulations were enforced there would be no bad banks.

The price of horses in the United States has increased at the rate of $5 per head annually since 1901. The automobile, the bicycle and the motor car have not succeeded in dehorning the horse, as was predicted.

Roosevelt's rural improvement commission has stirred up a lot of discussion. The two troubles of country people most frequently mentioned in the letters are lack of social privileges and lack of bath tubs. Who wouldn't kick if denied these blessings?

Governor-elect Stubbs of Kansas has announced that the chief effort of his administration will be directed to the securing of good roads, which, he says, are absolutely necessary for the farmers. This practical politics, or rather statesmanship of the right kind.

The Haskell Indians ought to be good football players, for they certainly eat enough. According to the official report the seven hundred and fifty at the Haskell school consume per day eight hundred pounds of flour, seven hundred pounds of meat, nine bushels of potatoes and other things in proportion.

Probably the worst disappointed man over the result of the election was Mr. Cowherd, Democratic nominee for governor in Missouri. He was so dead sure of being elected that he rented out his home for the four years that he expected to occupy the governor's mansion and now has to live in a rented house.

Kansas is ambitious to become a cotton state. Mail and Breeze says:

"A. W. Parker, of Fort Scott, has been taking a two months' trip through the South. He comes home imbued with the idea that Kansas can raise cotton if the rest of the states around here can and will plant 100 acres of the fleecy staple next spring on a farm two miles west of Scammon."

A COMPREHENSIVE DISPLAY.

Of Brazos County Products Now on Exhibition Here.

A very interesting and comprehensive display of the products of Brazos county is now on display in the Main street show window of C. E. Bullock & company of this city. Indeed, the window is full of prize winning specimens which attract the attention of all who pass the store. The present comprehensive display is the outgrowth of a newspaper item which appeared some weeks ago, mentioning the fact that one of the progressive citizens of this county had brought in specimens of Japan persimmons weighing three-fourth of a pound each. Another of the enterprising farmers residing nearby, upon reading the item, brought in specimens from his trees which weighed fifteen ounces each. Then others who did not grow fruit but did grow a variety of field crops, began to bring in specimens of their products, until today, the show window is full of as fine a display as can be seen anywhere. In fact, much of the exhibition was on display at the fair recently held in San Antonio, and is placed in the window by Mr. Yeager, who had charge of the Brazos county exhibits at the fair.

While this county is not regarded as a fruit growing proposition, there are nevertheless seven different varieties of peaches (preserved whole) in the collection, besides two Japan persimmons weighing seventeen ounces each. The persimmons are from the farm of Mr. J. H. White, of Wilcox, who is also a seed corn grower and breeder, and contributed eight different varieties of black California figs, plums and other fruits.

Fifty bolls of cotton depending from a string which loops gracefully across the front of the window, were grown on Mr. Yeager's place near this city and won the first prize in the San Antonio competition. There is also exhibited red millet, barley, broom corn, tobacco, upland rice and buckwheat, which won first premium in the Alamo city.

In addition to these, the window contains three varieties of peanuts, eleven varieties of corn (Brazos county grows 32 varieties) two of the ears measuring twelve inches in length—that is, for a length of twelve inches corn was growing on the cob, and was the largest ear shown in San Antonio, winning first prize on this account—two varieties of oats, popcorn, eight varieties of millet which is all that is known to the agricultural world, as follows: big German, little German, Hungarian, Siberian, Manitoba, Peral cane millet, and edible millet. There are three varieties of barley: flax, speltz, Nicaragua wheat, Kaffir corn, milo maize, upland rice four feet high, which won first prize; two varieties of oats, three varieties of field peas, two varieties of broom corn, bananas, oranges and preserved vegetables and two varieties of cigars and tobacco.

There is also included in the exhibit the fleece from one sheep raised by Mr. Gus Stevener of Kurten, which weighs sixteen pounds, and the fleece from a goat raised by Mrs. J. H. Zuber of which the mohair is eight inches in length.

Every item in the window was raised in Brazos county. Since the foregoing was written Mr. E. R. Lloyd of Harvey has contributed three specimens of turnips of as many varieties, weighing an average of three pounds each.

To Honor "Phil" Sheridan.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 24.—To the list of equestrian statues for which Washington is already famous another will be added tomorrow when a handsome statue of General "Phil" Sheridan will be unveiled and formally presented to the city. The statue cost $50,000 and was modeled by Gutzon Borglum of New York. It has been placed in the center of Sheridan Circle, at the intersection of Massachusetts avenue and Twenty-third street. At the dedication tomorrow, President Roosevelt is expected to speak and there will be a considerable military display. The event will be attended by the widow and other members of General Sheridan's family.

More Westinghouse Stock.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 24.—The stockholders of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company met in this city today for a special session to provide for the carrying out of the reorganization plan, which is to take the company out of the hands of the receivers. The plan contemplates an increase in the board of directors to sixteen and the formation of a proxy committee to remain in existence five years, according to the requirements of the modified plan of the readjustment committee. The stockholders are also asked to make changes in the bylaws required by the plan and to increase the capital stock to $10,000 as well as to adopt the necessary resolutions to make the plan itself effective.

75 YEARS OF PSI UPSILON

A Society That Numbers Nine Hundred Members.

New York, Nov. 24.—Distinguished appearing men wearing fraternity pins in their coat lapels were numerous about the corridors and lounging rooms of the Waldorf-Astoria. Among them were United States senators, noted authors, clergymen, prominent merchants, members of the judiciary and men who have risen to eminence in the professions and mercantile pursuits. The purpose of their gathering was to attend the great reunion and banquet to be given at the Waldorf-Astoria tonight in celebration of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Psi Upsilon fraternity, of which they are members.

The banquet promises to be a notable affair. The scheduled speakers are all men of national prominence. A letter regretting his inability to be present and expressing his warm interest in the event will be read from President-elect Taft, who is an active member of the fraternity.

The Psi Upsilon is one of the foremost of the college Greek letter societies in America. The society was founded at Union College, Schenectady, in 1833, by nine enthusiastic young men, who hardly dreamed that they were building a great national college society for all time. The fraternity soon commenced to spread, reaching Harvard, Yale, Columbia, and other big Eastern colleges. Then it swept into the "Middle States." Recently it has placed chapters in the universities of Wisconsin, Minnesota, California and Chicago.

From the nine founders it has achieved a membership roll of over ten thousand, of whom nine thousand are living members. On the roster of the society are many distinguished names. Among these, in addition to President-elect Taft, are Senator Chauncey M. Depew, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, Andrew D. White, former ambassador to Germany; Senator William P. Frye of Maine, Senator George P. Wetmore of Rhode Island, former Senator John C. Spooner of Wisconsin, Herbert W. Bowen, former minister to Venezuela, Goldwin Smith, Rev. Charles H. Parkhurst, John Kendrick Bangs, Herbert L. Bridge, man of Brooklyn, Timothy L. Woodruff, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., and Mayor J. Benjamin Dinnick of Scranton.

Reply to the Statement From T. W. C.

At every call

To basket ball,

We're on the spot and never miss.

The rules of Spaulding's Official Guide in regard to the choice of referee in a match game of basketball, were correctly quoted by the writer of the "Statement from T. W. C."

but were not correctly applied.

The West side team was organized outside of school and the referee chosen was not a member of the team or in any way connected with the organization. A member of our team notified the T. W. C. team by phone on the evening before the game, or rather the evening before the day on which the game was to have been played, of our choice of referee. Hence we complied with rule vii, sections No. 1 and 2, page 16 of Spaulding's Official Guide.

We note that the T. W. C. team declared the game forfeited to themselves and would respectfully call their attention to sections 36, 38 and 39 of rule xii, pages 22 and 23 of the above named guide.

Section 36. If only one team puts in appearance at the appointed time the referee shall announce that the team complying with the terms agreed upon shall be declared the winner of the game by default.

Section 38. Any team refusing to play within three minutes after receiving instructions to do so from the referee shall forfeit the game.

Section 39. The referee shall announce a team defaulting or forfeiting a game they lose by the score of 2 to 0.

These rules show plainly that no team has the power to declare a game forfeited and that such authority belongs to the referee alone.

We did not presume to say that we were the winners. We left that to the referee to whom the law gives such authority. We state these facts merely to present our side of the case to the readers of The Eagle.

We are not angry with anyone. We feel that the referee has carried out the rules as we understand them, and believe all who read them will agree with us. We are sorry the game could not be played but assure everyone that we did all we could—complied with every rule as we understood it.

We thank our friends and supporters very much for the interest they have shown in us and promise them that we shall continue to build up our team until they shall be proud to "root" for us.

Very respectfully,
WEST SIDE BASKETBALL CLUB.

Portuguese Heir to Visit King Edward.

Lisbon, Nov. 24.—The Duke of Oporto, the heir apparent to the crown of Portugal, left Lisbon for England this afternoon. The purpose of his mission is to formally notify King Edward of King Manuel's ascent to the Portuguese throne. This is in conformity of the special wish of the young king that the British government should be the first formally notified of his accession, on account of the friendly relations between Great Britain and Portugal.

The royal family, members of the cabinet, and many other notable persons bade the Duke farewell at the railroad station, where enthusiastic crowds also gathered. The Duke is accompanied by a numerous suite. He expects to remain about a week in London.

Gotham Girl Weds Englishman.

New York, Nov. 24.—A large gathering of fashionable folk filled the ballroom at Sherry's this afternoon to witness the marriage of Miss Jeannette Yale Hughes, daughter of George H. Hughes of this city and Mr. Robert Wynne-Jones of Bristol, England. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Wilton Merle Smith of the Central Presbyterian church, assisted by the Rev. Charles P. Fagnani of the Theological Seminary. Mrs. Alfred Chapman attended the bride as matron of honor. The bridegroom had as his best man, Leeds Johnson of this city. One of the ushers was Robert Sherman Boutell, formerly First Secretary of the American legation to The Hague. The bridal couple will sail later in the week for England, where they are to make their future home.

TREADWELL-NALL.

Tuesday at twelve the Baptist church was a scene of another beautiful wedding, nuptial vows being said by Mr. Basconn Bishop Treadwell of Uvalde, and Miss Jessie Nall of this city. The pulpit was beautifully and tastefully decorated with numerous handsome palms and ferns, by friends of the bride.

Promptly at twelve o'clock the coming of the bridal party was announced by a sweet song "Because," sung by Mrs. J. Webb Howell, the accompaniment being played by Mrs. R. S. Webb. As the last words echoed across the building the bridal party moved forward to the strains of Lohengrin wedding march, being played by Mrs. R. S. Webb. First to enter were the ushers, Messrs. Roy Buchanan and Seth DeMaret, Miss Charlie Jenkins and Mr. Roger Nall, was next to enter. The maid of honor Miss Mary Roman, came in alone. The bride, leaning on the arm of her father, was the next to enter, meeting the groom and his best man, Mr. John Treadwell, at the altar, where stood the minister Rev. M. E. Weaver, who very feelingly spoke the words which united the happy pair, the ring ceremony being used, and during which the organist played soft sweet music. The bride wore a handsome blue taffeta traveling dress with hat and gloves to match, carrying an arm bouquet of brides roses and ferns.

Misses Jenkins and Roman wore pretty white wool coat suits, with large white picture hats, carrying bouquets of ferns tied with maline. Mendelssohn's recessional was played as the party again took up the march, and as the door was reached many friends met the bride and groom with sincere congratulations.

The wedding party was driven to the home of the bride, where a lunch was served, from a pretty decorated table, thence they drove to the 1:38 train on which they left for San Angelo, for a two weeks visit then on to their home at Uvalde.

Numerous and handsome presents were received.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Nall and was reared to womanhood in our midst. Accomplished and possessing one of the very sweetest dispositions it is not strange that she was a favorite with all and Mr. Treadwell is to be congratulated upon his conquest.

Mr. Treadwell is a young man of sterling character and proprietor of the Uvalde Drug Co.

THE RENTFROWS

Pleased Another Large Audience at The Grand Last Night.

Another large and enthusiastic audience greeted the Rentfrow Stock Co. at the Grand last night to witness the four act play of western mining life, "The Judge and the Girl" which proved to be as interesting if not more so than on the previous night. As Judge Annanias Lovetody, Mr. J. N. Rentfrow carried off the honors, though Minnie Remaley as Nan the mountain waif and Fred Danon as Hal Clark came in for their share of appreciation. The vaudeville features were all new and highly entertaining. SIXTEEN FATALITIES.

It Is Possible That a Couple Will Be Constructed.

Tsing Tau, Nov. 24.—Sixteen Chinese were killed and several seriously injured in a wreck on the Chinanfu and Tsing tau railroad. The evening express train coming from Chinanfu was derailed on a bridge a short distance from Nunkouy, near the German-China frontier, while running at a high rate of speed. The engine and several of the forward coaches plunged into the river below and nearly all of the Chinese passengers were either drowned or severely injured.

INVASION EASY.

Lord Roberts Says Germany Could Land Troops In England.

London, Nov. 24.—Speaking in the house of lords, Field Marshal Lord Roberts expressed the conviction that the lack of military force sufficient to make hopeless the attempt of an invasion would, in all probability be the cause of the loss of Great Britain's supremacy at sea. In a studied speech he pointed out the comparative ease with which Germany could land an army on the shores of England. Under the present conditions England would be forced, he said, to submit to most humiliating demands. He disclaimed all hostility to or fear of Germany, but he declared that the defense of the islands requires immediate attention. There should be an army so strong in numbers and efficient in quality that the most formidable of foreign nations would hesitate to make a landing in England. He had ascertained, the speaker continued, that vessels capable of accommodating 200,000 men always were available in the northern ports of Germany and that as a result of the new German steamship lines were in constant practice on the embarking and disembarking, and as the railroads were owned by the state preliminaries up to the actual despatch of troops could be carried out with the utmost secrecy.

The speech caused a sensation.

Entire Electoral Vote for Taft.

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 24.—Governor Folk decided that under the Missouri statute the entire electoral votes of the state should go to William H. Taft.

This decision was made in spite of the fact that Brannock, the Bryan elector for the Sixth congressional district received more votes than Kiel, the second Republican elector at large, who received the lowest vote on the Republican electoral ticket. Brannock, however, received fewer votes than the Republican elector for the Sixteenth district.

The Missouri statute requires that an elector shall reside in the district for which he is elected.

Taking the vote of the first elector as a basis, the plurality of Taft in Missouri is 1,026.

Arkansas Election Returns.

Little Rock, Nov. 24.—Full official returns on the recent presidential election show that the Democratic electors received 87,043 and Republican 56,947 votes. The Republicans carried ten counties out of 75.

TWO GAS LINES.

It Is Possible That a Couple Will Be Constructed.

Henrietta, Tex., Nov. 24.—More than one natural gas pipe line from the Clay county fields to Fort Worth and Dallas is probable.

Pipe is arriving to put a line in beginning at Henrietta. E. R. Brown says work will begin at once and his people have no intention of disposing of their franchise at this place and expect to maintain and enlarge it soon. It is believed that they expect to head their line direct toward Dallas and send one to Fort Worth.

A representative of a New York syndicate has been here during the last two or three days and says his company is contemplating coming into this field and distributing the gas to several of the towns of north Texas. He thinks there is gas enough in the Clay county field to supply all the towns in a radius of 150 miles.

In boring wells for gas, some are striking oil at a depth of about 750 to 800 feet and the holes are producing 100 to 150 barrels daily.

Kindhearted Priest.

Temple, Tex., Nov. 24.—Rev. Father P. A. Heckman, in closing the Roman Catholic church building and locking the doors for the night, discovered that two men had concealed themselves inside it. Fearing that they had some evil intentions he telephoned to the officers, who arrived on the scene and took the men in custody. The latter explained that they were strangers, had no means and were simply preparing to use the church as a lodging house for the night. Upon hearing this the priest refused to make any complaint against the men, but instead gave the officers 50 cents for the men, under the promise that they would not be locked up, but the money expended in securing lodging for them at some suitable place.

The deal was effected through a San Angelo agency.

Mandamus Writ Issued.

Guthrie, Nov. 24.—The state supreme court issued a writ of mandamus ordering county judge of Hooker of Oklahoma the judicial charge of the state prohibitory law. Judge Hooker had held the law to be void and unconstitutional. The supreme courts now hold it to be constitutional.

TWO TORNADOES RAGE.

Portions of Western Section of Arkansas Devastated.

THIRTY THOUGHT KILLED.

Traveling in Different Directions, the Bodies of Wind Did Considerable Damage, Amounting to Hundreds of Thousands of Dollars.

Little Rock, Nov. 24.—Two tornadoes, one north and the other south bound, swept portions of western Arkansas, destroying many lives and much property. All means of communication were destroyed and only indefinite reports have been received from the districts which were visited by the tornado. From reports received at least thirty lives were lost. It is impossible to estimate the damage done.

The only definite report of damage came from Berryville, where the damage is estimated at between $25,000 and $45,000. All reports indicate that the damage in the state would amount to hundreds of thousands of dollars.

One tornado in the extreme southwestern part of the state and went north, following the second tier of counties from the western boundary line. The other started in the northwestern corner of the state and went south also, to all indications, following the second and third tier of counties.

Reports were to the effect that the two tornadoes struck the following counties: Lafayette, Columbia, Miller, Pike, Howard, Hemstead, Montgomery, Yell, Pope, Johnson, Franklin and Carroll.

The most severe storm was reported to have struck Piney, a German settlement on the Iron Mountain railroad between Knoxville and London. Late reports from Russellville were to the effect that between twelve and twenty people had been killed at Piney and about thirty injured. The larger part of the town, according to indefinite and authentic reports, was wiped off the earth.

But very little was known at Russellville concerning the disaster at Piney. One man returning to Russellville from London brought the report and others reached the place from different sources, none of which was considered definite or reliable.

Five lives were also reported to have been lost ten miles from Mulberry, where one of the tornadoes did great damage.

The storms also visited Ozark, from where nothing has been heard as yet; Lodi, near Texarkana where three buildings were destroyed and a woman injured; Lewisville, in Lafayette county, where great damage was done to timber and fences and one house, barn and some livestock destroyed; Berryville, where three people were injured one seriously and a number of residences were destroyed; Patmos where great damage is reported and Jethro and Wallerville, which towns are reported to have been wiped off the map.

Practically all telegraph and telephone lines in western Arkansas are down.

The tornado also struck Walla Walla and Dyer, two other small towns, doing considerable damage.

Paths ranging in width from two miles to a half mile wide were swept clean through towns, forests and open country.

Some reports stated that nothing had been left in many districts; that homes, timber, buildings, fences and everything had been uprooted and blown to bits.

A report from Fort Smith states that it is estimated that twenty-five lives were lost in towns outside of Piney and Mulberry. Reports from the two latter towns are to the effect that at least twenty or twenty-five lives were lost in the two towns. According to the dispatches, here a total of fifty or more lives were lost in the state. It is believed, however, that the reports exaggerate the loss of life and that a conservative estimate is thirty.

The country between Knoxville and Barr is a waste. Farm houses were shattered and some occupants killed. The path of destruction in some places was four miles wide.

Part of Town Wrecked.

Berryville, Ark., Nov. 24.—The most disastrous tornado ever known in northwestern Arkansas struck here Monday afternoon, completely wrecking a part of the town.

The only business houses damaged was that occupied by Mrs. Molloy. It was a two story frame, which was blown into kindling wood. The goods were destroyed by the downpour that followed. Mrs. J. O. Hoskins was badly injured by falling timbers, her head being cut open. Mrs. Henry Bail and children were also injured by falling timbers.

Considerable damage is reported in the country districts but no loss of life.

Documents Disappear.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 24.—County Clerk Charles H. Salen, subpoenaed to produce at the Standard Oil company hearing in New York valuable legal papers wanted by Attorney Kellogg found that the documents have mysteriously disappeared.

Among the missing files are a dozen affidavits made by Standard Oil chiefs, including one by John D. Rockefeller, president and others by Oliver H. Payne, connected with the company and remainder by men who are prominent in the standard oil in the east, many of whom are still big factors in the oil company. Mr. Salen and a corps of deputies searched in vain for the missing papers. Salen called Mr. Kellogg by long distance telephone and stated to him the unexplained disappearance.
